

Chapter 'X' - CODE of ETHICS (From By-Laws)

- A. To maintain high personal standards of character, integrity, and moral responsibility.
- B. To demonstrate and promote elevated professional standards.
- C. To be a positive example by my everyday words, actions, and deeds.
- D. To be liberal with my praise and careful with my criticisms, to build and not destroy.
- E. To continuously invest in and expand my own personal knowledge base by attending educational opportunities that may interrupt my daily business activities.
- F. To be knowledgeable of current and leading edge advances and technology within my profession and industry.
- G. To initiate, maintain, and improve sound business practices.
- H. To encourage and cooperate in the interchange of knowledge and techniques for the mutual benefit of the profession.
- I. To hold in professional confidence any confidential or proprietary information gained in the course of Chapter business and to refrain from using such information in any unethical manner.
- J. To encourage high standards of professional conduct.
- K. To seek success without taking unfair advantage of or utilizing questionable acts that would diminish my professional status or position.
- L. To neither engage in nor sanction any exploitation of my membership or profession.
- M. To uphold the high standards and ideals of APICS and its Code of Ethics.
- N. To resolve doubt according to the generally accepted standards of truth and fair dealing when a doubt arises as to the ethics of my action or deeds.

Chapter 'Y' - CODE of ETHICS (From By-Laws)

The code of ethics of this corporation is:

- A. To maintain and improve sound business practices and foster high standards of professional conduct.
- B. To hold in professional confidence any information gained of the business of a fellow member's company, and to refrain from using such information in an unethical manner.
- C. To seek success without taking unfair advantage or utilizing questionable acts that would compromise my self-respect.
- D. To neither engage in nor sanction any exploitation of my membership, company, or profession.
- E. To encourage and cooperate in the interchange of knowledge and techniques for the mutual benefit of the profession.
- F. To be careful with criticism and liberal with praise, to build and not to destroy.
- G. Whenever a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of a position of action, to resolve such doubt against myself according to generally accepted standards of truth, fair dealing, and good taste.
- H. To maintain high personal standards of moral responsibility, character, and business integrity.
- I. To uphold the high ideals of the society as outlined by the by-laws.