College level students in Operations Management are invited to participate in the Second Annual Student Case Study Competition sponsored by the Southwest District (formerly Region 7) of APICS, The Association for Operations Management, to be held in Buena Park, CA the weekend of April 11-12. The first and second place winners (up to 6 per team) will be invited to participate in the APICS International Conference Student Case Competition to be held in Kansas City, MO on September 13-16th, 2008. APICS is the International Educational Organization that builds operations management excellence in individuals and enterprises through superior education and training, internationally recognized certifications, comprehensive resources, and a worldwide network of accomplished industry professionals.

How your donations will be used: Through your donations, The Southwest District will help with travel and membership expenses to enable the winners to represent the Western Region of APICS at the 2008 International Conference.

All students attending the Western Region Competition will have their 1 night (Friday) hotel expense covered including Friday night hospitality and Saturday meals. In addition, each student will receive $25 with a student application form for APICS membership to insure that they are eligible to participate at the International Conference in Kansas City. In order to get them there and back, each student in the winning first & second place teams who attends the International Competition in September will receive $400 to cover transportation expenses to Kansas City, MO.
